Kurt Cobain's Christian Roth Sunglasses!

by JEREMY LANGE

Kurt Cobain was onto something when he sang, "With the lights out, it's less dangerous," which perhaps is why he constantly wore sunglasses. In a few of the most iconic photographs of the dearly beloved singer, he is wearing these unexpected cats-eye Christian Roth frames, which are burned into our collective grunge generation memories. So much so that we just had to bring them back, as part of the new collection of Christian Roth sunglasses re-imagined by Silver Lining Vintage and Opening Ceremony.
